

We Welcome the New Pastor of OLM Parish: Father Domingo Orimaco!

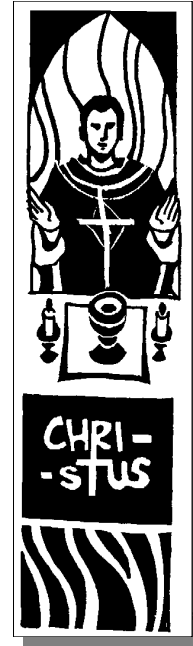

April 3, 2010

Dear Fellow Parishioners of Our Lady of Mercy,

This afternoon I received the following good news from Bishop William Justice — just in time for our Easter celebrations!

Please join me in praying for our new Pastor, who is thrilled to become a part of OLM Parish!

The Archdiocese of San Francisco Office of the Auxiliary Bishop One Peter Yorke Way, San Francisco, CA 94109

“I am very pleased to announce that Father Domingo Orimaco has been appointed by Archbishop Niederauer as the next Pastor of Our Lady of Mercy Parish, effective July 1, 2010.

“Father ‘Doming’ as he is generally known, is from the Province of Bohol, Philippines. He taught in the Diocesan Seminary of the Diocese of Tagbilaran, in Bohol, and was also assigned as Pastor in a parish in that diocese before coming to the Archdiocese of San Francisco 24 years ago.

“Since his arrival in 1986, Father has served in this Archdiocese as Parochial Vicar of Holy Angels Church in Colma, Star of the Sea Church in San Francisco, and Saint Augustine Church in South San Francisco. In 1997, he began his current appointment as Pastor of Our Lady of the Pillar Church in Half Moon Bay.

“Father Doming was a member of the Priests’ Archdiocesan Choir, and served as Dean of Deanery 10 for five years. He was a member of the Council of Priests for five years, and is currently serving on the Priests’ Retirement Board.

“When time allows, he loves to play basketball, tennis and golf. He is looking forward to the years ahead with you at Our Lady of Mercy Parish.”
