Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time:

Saint Bonaventure once said, "Perseverance will win the prize." In today's Gospel, Jesus invites us to approach God with persistent faith. Our perseverance in prayer is a sign of our hope - our belief that God is not only listening, but responding with love.

When we pray the Lord's Prayer, we say, "Give us this day our daily bread." This humble petition reminds us that we rely on God not just in moments of great need, but each and every day. The Lord desires that we come to Him constantly, not because He forgets, but because He longs to be in relationship with us.

God may not always respond in the way or timing we expect, but He always gives what is truly good for us. Our role is to keep asking, to keep trusting, and to keep opening our hearts to His will. For the Father who loves us beyond measure will never fail to provide what we need today, and always.

Prayer

"Ask, Seek, Knock: Trusting in the Father's Goodness"

Heavenly Father, You are holy, and your name is above all names. Teach us to pray not just with words, but with hearts that trust in your goodness. Give us today what we need, and help us to be content with your daily bread. Forgive us Lord, as we forgive those who have hurt us. Lead us away from temptation, and protect us from all that a would draw us from you.

Like a friend who knocks at midnight, may we come to you with boldness and persistence, trusting that

You hear us, not because we are worthy, but because you are loving. You are a Father who delights in giving good gifts to your children. So we ask, we seek, we knock not for riches, but for your Spirit to dwell richly in us.

Shape our hearts to reflect yours. Make us generous, forgiving, and faithful. And may our lives be a living prayers, bring your kingdom closer with every act of love.

Amen.
